Katrina Walker – Lay reader in training

I am delighted to say that Bishop Mark has given his blessing for Katrina Walker to continue her training with us and, in due course, to begin her licensed ministry here in the Benefice. After consulting others – including Bishop Martin - the Bishop feels that it is very appropriate for Katrina to make this move and is pleased to be able to make it possible. Everybody at Immanuel Church, where Katrina has been a member, has also been very supportive and understanding of Katrina's desire to relocate and so she begins this new chapter with everybody's blessing. Katrina will be saying her goodbyes at Immanuel on March 26th and will then be with us from the beginning of April. I've asked her to write a brief letter of introduction for us for the May magazine! James

Two weeks ago I asked, "What does EHS stand for?"

It stands for Emotionally Healthy Spirituality and is the title of a book and a course, both aimed at helping us deepen our relationship with God by looking at ways we can improve our emotional health and our relationships with others. Having done this course, I wholeheartedly commend it to you. Tineke and Peter have kindly offered us their home for the 8 session course which will run on Tuesday evenings, starting on 2nd May and ending on 27th June (there will be no meeting on 30th May). There are sign-up sheets at the back of church for you to put your name and contact number if you would like to take part. There is no charge for the course, although the book by Peter Scazzerro, on which the course is based, costs £9.99 from Amazon and I will gladly order copies for anyone interested. I hope you can join us.

Thank you. Stephen Everard

Beacon Service

We welcome Sarah Page to this evening's Beacon Service. Sarah will be speaking about the work of BEATS (British Earthquake and Tsunami Support), a charity that supports orphans in Indonesia. Stephen, Jane and Naomi will be spending 2 weeks from 11th April with Sarah in Indonesia, spending time with some of the children and young adults and sharing in some of the work of the charity. Do come and join us if you can.

Soft toys for Indonesia

If you would like to give a small soft toy to an orphan in Indonesia, these can be brought to the Beacon Service this evening or to either of the services next Sunday. Thank you for your generosity.

Jane, Stephen and Naomi
